WHO: 45 students from both DHS & HP

WHAT: Equity & Inclusion and SOAR are co-sponsoring the Civil Rights Journey to Alabama. This trip is designed to activate touchstones from history that give credibility, direction, and momentum to students’ current curriculum, lived experiences, and future lives. On and off the bus, during our tour of the Legacy Museum and the National Monument for Peace and Justice, and while crossing the Pettus Bridge we will be emphasizing and experiencing a slice of the civil rights story in an era of renewed activism around race and equality.

WHEN: March 6-8, 2020

WHY:
1. To confront the past and commit to challenging racial injustice and inequity today.
2. To continue to build a community of scholars across age, gender, race, religion, and sex. The core of the community will begin with our ADL Peer Influencer crews at each school.

WHERE: 50 participants comprised of 45 students (roughly 20 from each school) and 5 adult chaperones will meet at HPHS in the back parking lot at 5:15 p.m. on Friday, March 6th to begin boarding buses. Buses will leave promptly at 6:15 p.m. During our 12 hours on the road, we will hear from our Grandtimers who will share their memories of the Civil Rights era, listen to music and podcasts and watch videos all curated especially for our trip.

Saturday, March 7 @ 6:30 AM
Once we arrived in Montgomery, we will check-in at the Embassy Suites Hotel, eat breakfast, and begin touring the museums at 9 AM. Given the large size of our group, we will divide into 2 groups and flip-flop our visits to each site.

Saturday, 4:00 PM
We will return to the hotel for some RR before heading out for dinner at a local restaurant.

Sunday, March 8 @ 8:00 AM
We will check out of the hotel and drive 1 hour to Selma to walk the Pettus Bridge and discuss the historical importance.

Noon
After lunch, we will hit the road for our return trip.

6 PM
At the half-way point, we will stop for a quick dinner in Kentucky.

Midnight
We will return to the HPHS parking lot at midnight on Sunday

HOW: We will travel the 778 mi / 12 hrs on luxury buses (with 2 bus drivers sharing the drive) equipped with wi-fi, outlets, AC, bathroom, microphone, radio, and drop-down TVs. When in Montgomery, we will walk to our destinations. The Embassy Suites Hotel is a close .2-mile walk from the museum and memorial. You will find the breakdown of the cost of the trip below. Full and partial scholarships are available to all that apply.
