

THE CITRON RULES

Email Citron: hcitron@dist113.org

The More You Know

Learning Targets/

Objectives - Targets will be provided at the beginning of each unit. Targets will be posted on Google Classroom

Late Work - Accepted up until last day of semester. Max of half credit.

Phone Policy - Phones & Headphones will be put away BEFORE entering the room.

Materials Required

- Scientific calculator
- Pencils and/or pen
- Six-in-one geometry instrument from the DHS bookstore
- 1 box of tissues
- Colored pens/pencils (optional)
- Personal headphones

YOUR Objectives and Expectations

HAVE FUN LEARNING SCIENCE!!!

Listen to and RESPECT each other at ALL times

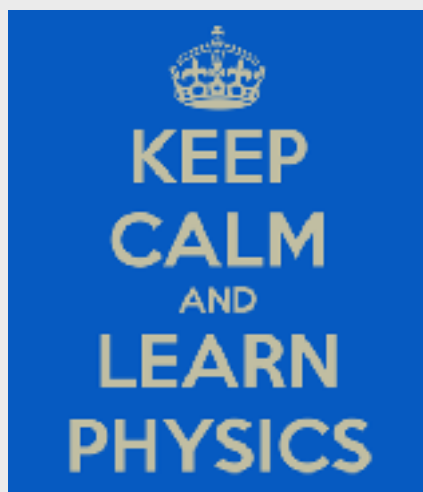

Take responsibility for yourself and your choices

Don't just be good, be GREAT

Participate in class discussions, group work and individual work.

Academic honesty is of the utmost importance. Cheating of any kind will follow the consequences outlined in the student handbook.

TOPICS TO BE COVERED

NEED HELP?

- Make appointments and ask for help.
- Go to the ARC during study hall or your off period if you are struggling with a concept.
- Sign-up for REMIND Messaging Service.

GRADING WEIGHTS

Tests/Projects - 65%

Quizzes - 15%

Assignments - 10%

Labs - 10%

Final - 10%

Waves
 Nature of Sound
 Light
 Color
 Optics
 Electrostatics
 Electricity
 Magnetism
 Electromagnetism
 Motion 1D
 Motion 2D
 Circular Motion
 Vectors
 Forces
 Momentum
 Energy

Homework

- Homework will be listed daily on the through Remind notification service.

Communication

- Email/Phone calls will be answered within 24 hours during the work week.

Absences

- Missed work is YOUR responsibility.
- Email any questions regarding missed work.
- If absent, check Remind notifications for missed work.

Attendance

- DHS attendance and tardy policies apply to this class.

Physics

Classroom Syllabus, Rules and Expectations

Instructor: Howard Citron

After reading Mr. Citron's Classroom Syllabus, Procedures and Expectations, please sign and return this page. The remaining handouts should be kept in your science binder

This form is due on August 30, 2017.

I have read and understand Mr. Citron's syllabus and understand the information within.

Student Name (Please Print) _____

Student's Signature _____ Date _____

I have read and understand Mr. Citron's syllabus and understand the information within.

(Parents, you are encouraged to sign-up for our REMIND service to be notified of daily activities/assignments/homework. Email me for a code! hcitron@dist113.org)

Parent Name (Please Print) _____

Parent's Signature _____ Date _____

Parent Email _____ @ _____